

WEB / URL / DOMAIN-BASED PHISHING

These attacks trick users through malicious websites, fake URLs, or look-alike domains designed to mimic real services.

Attackers register domains that appear legitimate or use links that redirect to harmful sites where they steal credentials, download malware, or collect sensitive information.